BANK DEPOSITS UP

BIG GAIN SHOWN OVER STATEMENTS A YEAR AGO

NODAWAY IS PROSPEROUS

Local Financial Institutions, in Statements Today, Reflect Flourishing Condition of Business

Notwithstanding the fact that Maryville has been called upon to give liberally in aid of war and in the purchase of Liberty bonds there is more money in local banks of Maryville than ever before. A statement of the four financial institutions at the close of business on November 20 shows total deposits of $2,616,000. A year ago on November 17 the combined deposits were $2,170,000, showing a gain of nearly half a million dollars.

A year ago the four banks reported loans to the extent of $2,198,000. In the statements published today the total loans reach $2,369,000, a gain of $160,000.

The small increase in combined loans is a reflection of the prosperity of the county, as ordinarily the increase as compared with other years should have been much larger, but many farmers have been reducing their indebtedness from profits received from crops and live stock.

A gain of $446,000 in deposits give further assurance of the general prosperity of this section, and with nearly two and a half millions of dollars on deposit, Maryville is in pretty good shape to get through the winter and have a little left for another Liberty bond call, the Y. M. C. A., the Red Cross and other war purposes. Also it evidently takes more cash to do business with than it did a year ago. One might realize the cash on a half million dollar check and the banks would still have over $45,000 left; cash on hand a year ago was $420,000, the statement published today shows there is a total of $545,400 in bank coffers.

In spite of the increased cost of living bankers and merchants see no indication of other than normal business for the coming winter and preparations are going on for the holiday and Christmas trade as in other years.

A PARNELL BOY'S SACRIFICE

Roscoe W. Reeves Sold His Goods at Public Sale so That He Might Enlist in the Navy

When Roscoe W. Reeves of Parnell registered last summer for the selective draft his friends asked him if he would claim exemption. "Just a suit of brown clothes and a shotgun," he told them, would be his only claim. Today Reeves returned from Kansas City, where he enlisted in the navy as a cook.

"I was glad to be able to go before I was drafted," said Reeves this morning, as he waited in the office of the clerk of the local draft board for some final papers necessary. "I wanted to enlist sooner, but I had my crop in and hated to lose it, so last week I determined to get what I could, and Saturday I auctioned off everything I had and went to Kansas City and turned myself over to Uncle Sam. I have until Tuesday to finish my personal business and will return to Kansas City for assignment."

Reeves, who is a single man, went to Parnell about five years ago as a farm hand working for $30 a month. He stuck close to business and the third year was able to rent a seventy-acre farm. He was successful and had good crops and accumulated some live stock. Without advertising the fact, he held a public sale Saturday and got whatever bidders wanted to pay, making a sacrifice of several hundred dollars in order that he might keep his promise to himself to volunteer his services to the government before called in the draft.

RICHARDSON DENIED PAROLE

Move to Release Slayer of Berryman Filed—Had Served Sentence Before

Wm. Richardson, a former Maryville man, charged with the murder in St. Joseph of "Jack" Berryman, was denied a parole Saturday by the prosecuting attorney of Buchanan county.

"I find that about thirty years ago, at Maryville, Mo., Richardson shot and wounded a man, for which he served a penitentiary sentence," said Prosecuting Attorney Bothwell. "Under the law, this precludes parole in the present case. There can be no parole where there has been a conviction in a former felony case. The only way to get a parole would be to let Richardson plead guilty to common assault, which is of course out of the question."

The case will take its regular course on the docket, and probably will come up for trial in the January term of court.

BIG JOB FOR BOARD

GET READY TO MAIL QUESTIONNAIRE TO DRAFTED MEN

BLANKS ARRIVED TODAY

Clerk Yeomans Seeks Other Quarters In Which to Handle Work—Will Employ Efficient Secretary

Three big mail sacks filled with supplies for the local draft board that were delivered at Sheriff John Dowden's office this morning included the questionnaire that will be mailed to every registrant for the selective draft service in Nodaway county. Fred J. Yeomans, clerk of the draft board, announced this morning that the work of mailing them out will begin within the next few days.

The local draft board faces a problem in finding quarters in which to take care of the business and clerical work in connection with the draft. Some of the work has been done in the county clerk's offices, some in Sheriff Dowden's rooms and use has been made of the jury rooms and witness rooms up stairs, but with a term of court at hand there will be no room available in which to continue the draft work, and it increases in volume every week.

Under the new ruling it is learned that the government has authorized the employment by the local board of some person who must be efficient in clerical work and typewriting to take charge and keep systematized the clerical work of the board in having complete records of every man registered, and also of the men who are sent to the various cantonments, exemption claims, and other matters.

Mr. Yeomans is seeking some one who can fill the position, and also will endeavor to secure quarters where the work may be handled more efficiently than is now possible under the conditions that exist in the court house. The work of the board makes it almost imperative that some one be on hand all the time to answer inquiries by registrants and by friends and relatives of the men who have already been chosen.

When the questionnaire is returned more detail work will be necessary and more records must be kept and indexes must be correct of every registrant. The work will occupy the entire time of one person for many months and perhaps for the entire period of the war.

LET'S RETURNTHE GOOD TURN

Boy Scouts Are in Need of Permanent Quarters—Movement Deserves Substantial Support of the Public

One of the laws of the Boy Scouts organization is to do a good turn to some one every day. In their good turns the Scouts have included Maryville, having rendered efficient service on the occasion of the big barbecue, when the second contingent of soldiers went away, again during the Liberty Bond campaign, and last week as guides for delegates and visitors to the Sunday School convention. For such public services the Scouts are not permitted to ask for pay.

It comes to the attention of the Democrat-Forum, however, that the organization is without permanent quarters, where they can meet, and with no funds except the pittance of ten cents dues each month from each Scout. They have a number of activities planned that will tend to further develop a large civic interest and they are anxious to secure permanent quarters in which to keep their equipment and that they can take an interest in and fit up from time to time as they find themselves able.

If there are those in Maryville sufficiently interested in the Scout movement and in seeing that the local troop is properly equipped to continue the splendid work they are engaged in, the training for useful citizens and substantial and reliable young manhood, it is time that the movement and organization be given the support to which it is entitled. Maryville is going to need the Scouts and the service they will be able to render. Let's go a little farther when we're doing something for the boys "over there" and do a little bit for the boys "over here."

STATE HOUSE MENUS

GOVERNOR'S WIFE SETS EXAMPLE IN FOOD CONSERVATION

A REAL CITY "GARDNER"

Raises Most of Vegetables for Her Table While Own Chickens Furnish Plenty of Eggs

Special to The Democrat-Forum.

Columbia, Mo., Nov. 26.—Food saving knows no particular sphere, but in this time of war is a problem to be solved by each individual. Missouri's first lady of state, Mrs. Jeannette V. Gardner, wife of Governor Frederick D. Gardner, is an advocate of conservation and has planned a concrete and practical method of accomplishing such an end for the executive mansion of the state.

Here are some of the things which Mrs. Gardner has done:

She has invested in a flock of chickens which have furnished the eggs for the table. A number of the chickens raised during the summer have also been used on the table.

She has put in a garden and raised lettuce, radishes, onions, beans, tomatoes and potatoes, all of which have or will find their way to the governor's table.

She has taken meat from the menu for breakfast and lunch and serves it only for the evening meal, and then only four times each week. Fowl is served twice a week and fish once a week.

She is serving corn bread, corn cakes and corn muffins, and has cut the wheat bread consumption approximately in half.

She is serving only two vegetables for dinner instead of three.

"All in all," Mrs. Gardner declares, "we are trying to make a very practical conservation of food and find, we have also improved the health of the family and the household generally."

What Missouri's first lady is doing, many other housewives of the state are also accomplishing and by such an accomplishment are in the service of the nation for the success of the war.

BY CHRISTIAN CHURCH, $241

Contributes to Fund for Church Work Near Army Cantonments—Will Look After Own Boys in War

In aid of the war relief emergency fund being raised by all churches of the Disciples of Christ for the purpose of strengthening their own work near the army cantonments, the congregation of the First Christian church yesterday morning contributed $241 to the fund. If it is found necessary a tabernacle will be built and efficient men will be secured to look after the boys who are members of the church and Sunday school.

It is explained that this work is not in competition with the work of the Y. M. C. A., but is supplemental to it and has been urged by the government.

Fight Teutons to a Standstill When Attempt is Made to Displace Them From Positions at Cambrai

Special to The Democrat-Forum.

Rome, Nov. 26.—Several Austro-German divisions were annihilated in the fierce fighting on the Asiago plateau front. The dispatches from the front dwelt on the severity of the losses inflicted on the Teutons and the completeness with which the attack had been checked by the Italians.

Further details of the fierceness of the recent fighting in the north were given to the correspondent by an eye witness returning from the battle line who also told of many instances of daring by regiments, batteries and individuals.

The Italian artillery has especially distinguished itself. In the fighting around Meletta d'Aventi, a mountain battery was obliged to fall back with the infantry. Every officer of the battery had been killed execpt the captain, who was badly wounded. While bleeding on the ground he called two gunners, ordered them to set up the wreck of the remaining gun and directed them to fire from this point. The last seen of him was on the ground behind this piece.

London, Nov. 26.—British troops in the front ground at the base of Cambrai have fought the Germans to a standstill and the Teutons were unable to deliver further counter attacks last night, the British war office announced today. The British forces have fought their way into Bourlon village and the high ground of Bourlon dominating Cambrai on the west and held all their gains. Artillery duelling in the sector of Passchendaele in West Flanders increased during the night.

Marshall, Mo., Nov. 26.—Twenty young men from Salina county have been granted three weeks furlough by the war department to assist in the farm work here. They are all located at Camp Funston and will return to their homes in this county.

Watch How The Income Tax Affects YOU

The $50-a-week man or woman, if unmarried, must pay a war revenue tax of $32 for the year 1917. This is 2 per cent of his or her salary in excess of $1,000, which is exempt.

Fifty dollars a week is $2,600 a year, and so the tax is levied on $1,600. The married man pays a 2 per cent tax on $600, or $12. He is exempt up to $2,000.

But if his wife is making $20 a week to help out the family income, the couple must turn over $32.80 to Uncle Sam. Their combined income will be $70 a week, or $3,640 a year, and on this the government allows $2,000 exemption.

If the couple mentioned, however, has ten children, they would be taxed only two per cent of $640, or $12.80, for the government allows $200 exemption for each child. In case they own an equity in a house or business block, on which the mortgage interest, taxes and water rent exceeds $640, they would escape the war revenue tax entirely.

Interest on any kind of personal indebtedness will offset that amount of war tax, for it is "net" income only that is to be figured upon. Suppose the single man owes a loan "shark" $5,000, on which he must pay $1,600 interest. He could claim an exemption of $1,600, which, in addition to his $1,000 exemption, would leave him tax free. In this case the state authorities would probably "get" the loan shark.

If you own rented property you may figure in the cost of repairs, and if you have made gifts to certain charities,, you may claim exemption for these amounts up to 15 per cent of your income.

Whatever your circumstances, however, if you make a gross income of $50 a week, whether in straight salary or through salary and "sidelines", you must make out a schedule for the collector of internal revenue, stating your income and filing your exemptions on or before March 1, 1918.

How Long Must I Suffer From the Pangs of Rheumatism?

Is there no real relief in sight?

Doubtless like other sufferers, you have often asked yourself this question, which continues to remain unanswered.

Science has proven that your Rheumatism is caused by a germ in your blood, and the only way to reach it is by a remedy which eliminates and removes these little pain demons from your blood. This explains why liniments and lotions can do no permanent good, for they cannot possibly reach these germs which infest your blood by the millions.

S. S. S. has been successfully used for Rheumatism for more than fifty years. Try it to-day, and you will find yourself at last on the right track to get rid of your Rheumatism. You can get valuable advice about the treatment of your individual case by writing to the Chief Medical Adviser, Swift Specific Co., Dept. D Atlanta, Ga.

MADE WORK EASY FOR HIM

Sec. Bowmar Writes Letter of Appreciation for Work of Committees That Handled Convention

The following appreciative letter from Herman Bowmar, general secretary of the Missouri Sunday School Association, was received today by G. B. Roseberry:

St. Louis, Nov. 24, 1917.

Mr. G. B. Roseberry,

Dear Sir:—It would take a week and a lot more ability than I possess to even begin to express my appreciation of the absolutely perfect way in which you handled the convention. Notwithstanding the fact that it was the biggest one we have ever had, and the added tax of having all the supplies exhausted, your arrangements were so complete and your committees did their work so thoroughly, that my responsibility was much less than in any previous convention.

Heretofore I have had to put in about twenty hours a day during the convention, and it has taken fully a week to recover after my return. I had a good rest every night I was in Maryville and am about normal already.

Your never failing good humor and optimism, and the many personal courtesies shown me and the other officers and speakers added very much to our pleasure. I am writing to the chairmen of the other committees to express my gratitude to them, and I assure you that Maryville and her people will ever have a very warm place in my affections.

Sincerely yours,
HERMAN BOWMAR,
General Secretary.

Machinery Breaks Down

(By Dr. L. C. Babcock.)

All machinery wears out in time. Machinery gets rusty, it breaks down and the life of the machine is cut short. It is the same with the human body, and strange to say, few people take as good care of their own machinery as they do of the engine of their automobile or of a pump. Owing to our abuse of stomach and entire intestinal tract through over-eating or clogging up of the intestines, we are subject to many ills which are all due to not keeping the human machinery oiled up. Everyone should assist nature now and then with a searching and cleansing, yet thorough, cathartic to remove offending matter from the stomach and bowels, to tone up and invigorate the liver and quicken its tardy action, and thereby avoid a multitude of diseases.

A well-known agent and one which can be procured at almost any drug store is 'Pleasant Pellets' made up of the May apple, the dried juice of the leaves of aloes and the root of jalap. This was first put out by Dr. Pierce's nearly fifty years ago; they are tiny, sugar-coated, anti-bilious granules, scarcely larger than mustard seeds.

A TRENTON WOMAN

Trenton, Mo.—"For many years Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has been my only medicine. For a long time I doctored for woman's weakness but instead of getting better I became worse. It seemed to affect my back; it would pain me so I could not sleep at night. I got very weak and nervous, could not do anything. I used 'Favorite Prescription' until I was well and hearty.—Mrs. Chas. Kennedy, 2403 Chestnut St.

SOLVES A MURDER MYSTERY

C. F. Wineinger Confesses to Killing W. C. Goold, a St. Joseph Garage Owner.

Charles F. Wineinger, arrested in connection with the investigation of the murder of W. C. Goold at St. Joseph has confessed to the crime, according to a statement issued by the police there. He made no statement of motive other than to say he was almost insane and hardly realized what he was doing.

The alleged confession describes the crime in detail and tells that Wineinger came to St. Joseph from Kansas City on the last interurban car; called up the Goold home on the telephone and arranged to have Goold take him to Dekalb. When Goold's motor car reached the city limits Wineinger struck him on the head with a hammer, the alleged confession relates, and after Goold staggered from the car and fell at the side of the road, shot him through the heart. Wineinger then drove the car two miles into the country and walked the remainder of the way to the first interurban station below there and boarded the first morning car back to Kansas City.

Trainmen on both cars identified him, corroborating these details of the alleged confession.

Wineinger is believed to have been madly infatuated with Mrs. Goold. A year ago she left her husband and joined Wineinger in Texas, but after two months she was prevailed to return to her husband through the pleadings of their 13-year-old daughter.

"When I refused to get a divorce from Will, my husband, Wineinger threatened to kill me," said Mrs. Goold, "or take the life of my husband. I thought he was bluffing."

Wineinger does not implicate anyone else, but the police are still holding Mrs. Goold. When Wineinger was told that she accused him of the murder, he is said to have broken down for the first time and said, "If she says so, it must be true."

The alleged relations between Wineinger and Mrs. Goold date back over a year, the police say. Wineinger has been married and his wife is living in San Antonio, Tex.

WOULD SAVE THE HILL LAND

A Missouri University Engineer Urges Care by Farmers in Order to Prevent Erosion.

The erosion of Missouri hill lands under the action of heavy rainfall presents an interesting engineering problem whose solution is pointed out by Dean E. J. McCaustland of the University of Missouri. An elementary knowledge of simple surveying, says Dean McCaustland, would enable farmers to make contour maps of their farms on which tney could lay out systems of terracing to make possible the cultivation of the land without assisting in the washing away process.

Simple stop dams of brush and earth can be constructed in the gullies and arranged with special overflows to protect the structures while the sediment washed down from the hills gradually fills up the low places. Furthermore, the preparation of such maps enables the farmer to lay out his fields and adopt methods of cultivation that take advantage of the natural slope of the ground and avoid a furrowing which starts ditches. If ditches are never begun they can never grow.

The extension of acreage that might be brought about by these methods is probably very large. Some of the older countries in Europe have been using methods of this sort for centuries on soils which are much more subjected to erosion than the Missouri clays, according to the Missouri expert. Careful planning based on a little technical knowledge of surveying and mapping will save many Missouri farms from gradual ruin.

A Tornado in the Ozarks.

Several persons were injured, none seriously, it is believed, and heavy damage was done to farm property by a tornado and electrical storm which swept through the north portion of Greene county recently. Starting at the head of Clear Creek, the tornado went down the valley twenty miles and left houses twisted from their foundations, outbuildings demolished, live stock dead or injured and corn and wheat in shock strewn over the country for miles. It was traced through Hickney Mill, Walnut Springs, Willard, Elwood and Glidewell.

Missouri Cotton Gin Burns.

The large cotton gin at Neelyville, owned by the Price-Beard Cotton Company of Poplar Bluff, burned the other night. The loss is $5,000.

Train Hits Auto at Carthage.

James Hull was killed and R. N. Alexander, city street commissioner, was badly injured when the motor car in which they were riding was struck at a grade crossing by a Frisco passenger train at Carthage.

Missouri Baptists Endow Colleges.

The Missouri Baptist General Association, at the concluding convention session at Springfield, raised $1,200 as a gift to Macon college, a seminary for negroes at Macon, Ga., and $1,000 to assist needy students.

Internal Revenue Collector E. M. Harber Gives Information as to What Papers Require Stamps

Collector of Internal Revenue E. M. On each certificate showing issue or capital stock, whether upon organization or reorganization, on each one hundred dollars face value ,or fraction thereof, five per cent, and where such stock is issued without face value, a tax of five cents per share unless it should be the actual value is in excess of one hundred dollars per share, in which case the tax shall be five cents on each one hundred dollars of the actual value of the stock. Such stamps are to be attached to the stock books and not to the certificates.

On All Transfer Papers.

On sales, agreements of sale or memoranda of sale and transfer of legal title to shares or certificates of stock, whether made or shown by the books of the association or by assignment in blank, or by delivery, or by any paper, agreement or memoranda or other evidence of sale, whether entitling the holder in any manner to the benefit of such stock or not, two cents on each one hundred dollars of face value or fraction thereof.

Upon each sale, agreement of sale, including so-called transfer or scratch sales at any exchange, board of trade or similar place, for future delivery, for each one hundred dollars in value of merchandise covered by said sale or agreement to sell, two cents, and for each additional one hundred dollars, or fractional part thereof, in excess of one hundred dollars, two cents.

Upon every deed or instrument of writing conveying any lands, when the consideration in the deed or instrument, or the value of the interest conveyed, exclusive of the value of any lien or incumbrance thereon, exceeds one hundred dollars, and does not exceed five hundred dollars, fifty cents, and for each additional five hundred dollars or fractional part thereof, fifty cents. Stamps are not required on deeds of trust or instruments in writing given to secure a debt, but are required upon the note.

These tablets are wonder-workers on the liver and bowels, which cause a normal action, carrying off the waste and poisonous matter in one's system.

If you have a pale face, sallow look, dull eyes, pimples, coated tongue, headaches, a listless, no-good feeling, all out of sorts, inactive bowels, you take one of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets nightly for a time and note the pleasing results.

Thousands of women as well as men take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the successful substitute for calomel—now and then just to keep in the pink of condition. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

We wish to announce to the public that all groceries sold after December 1 will be for cash only. This cash in advance plan will enable us to sell many articles a little cheaper and we are sure will be satisfactory to our customers.

This store is not changing to the cash plan because its customers do not pay their bills, but because the grocery market is so unstaple that all operating costs must be held down to the minimum. We trust that all our regular customers will fall in line with the cash business, and that many new customers will visit our store also.

Red Cross Calendar

All afternoon meetings at the Red Cross headquarters for war service begin promptly at 2:30 o'clock and the evening meetings at 7 o'clock. Following are the meetings for the week:

MONDAY—Baptist auxiliary in the afternoon, Miss Orril Helwig, captain.

Christian church Mission Circle auxiliary in the afternoon with Mrs. J. M. McDonald, instructor.

TUESDAY—The W. R. C. auxiliary in the afternoon, Mrs. Catherine Miller, captain.

The Presbyterian auxiliary in the afternoon. This meeting is set ahead on account of the regular time coming on Thanksgiving Day.

WEDNESDAY — The Shakespeare auxiliary in the afternoon, Mrs. W. J. Osburn, captain.

The Hospital auxiliary in the afternoon, Mrs. C. V. Martin, captain.

THURSDAY — Thanksgiving Day — The usual meeting of the Methodist Missionary Society auxiliary will be postponed one week for this reason.

FRIDAY — The Methodist Church South auxiliary in the afternoon, Mrs. M. A. Peery, captain.

The evening auxiliary at night, Miss Ora Barmann, captain.

Can Work at All Times.

Any member of any Red Cross auxiliary, who finds it inconvenient to work with her own auxiliary at its regular meeting time, is both privileged and welcome to enter any other auxiliary. In this way she can make up the quota of work she wishes to do and the credit will go to her own organization. When entering for work the only requirement is that the captain of the auxiliary be notified and your working credit be placed where it should be.

Organize Auxiliary.

The Ladies Aid Society of the First Christian church started a Red Cross auxiliary Friday afternoon by organizing one of twenty members with Mrs. J. H. Todd, captain, Mrs. George Hartley, secretary, and Mrs. J. B. Robinson treasurer. The war service work will begin with the fist meeting on Tuesday afternoon of next week.

Auxiliary Earns $190.00.

The Skidmore auxiliary did something outside its regular Red Cross work last week when the women served dinner at the big stock sale of F. C. Barber & Son, Thursday, and cleared $190, which is to be given to the Red Cross for war relief work.

Did Excellent Work.

The women of the Methodist church South auxiliary are very proud of the work they did last Friday and they are well deserving of praise. It was their first regular meeting and the twenty-six women present made 326 surgical dressings during the afternoon. In addition to this, one member turned in two pairs of knitted woolen socks as her war service contribution. The full membership of the auxiliary is about forty.

Co-operation of Knitters Wanted.

Sounds like a "want ad," and it is one. Because of the small supply of yarn being received at headquarters, Miss Hattie Pierce, head of the knitting division, needs the co-operation of all knitters in this way: that only good and speedy knitters and those who can finish the article in a reasonable time, apply for materials. With the winter cold actually here, there should be no unnecessary delay in making these warm articles for the soldiers. The national chapter has sent out an urgent call for knitted garments and the Maryville chapter wishes to do its part in filling this order quickly.

To Make Hospital Garments.

Hospital garment making afternoons are on Mondays and Fridays, and any woman who cares to do this work can enter either the Baptist auxiliary, which meets on Monday afternoon, or the D. A. R. auxiliary, which meets Friday afternoon. Mrs. D. J. Thomas is head of this division and will give assistance to any worker who would like to enter either of these classes.

Gives Room For Headquarters.

Mrs. Lawrence Gault, a member of the Lasher auxiliary, has given one of the rooms in her home as a headquarters for the auxiliary. The Gault home is a spacious one, about five miles southwest of the city, and is a center for the Lasher district. Two other members have given their machines, others have furnished the tables, and the men of the community have given the coal to heat the room. Knowing that cleanliness is one of the first requirements of Red Cross work, all equipment will be spotless and of the best, the tables will be covered with white and all workers will wear fresh white working uniforms. The meetings are held every Thursday afternoon. The headquarters will not be ready for use until December 6, and the meeting this week will be with Mrs. James Stevenson, captain of the auxiliary. Last Thursday the meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Mary Kost Riffle. Sixteen members were present and they completed one hundred surgical dressings.

Educated Women In Russia.

The educated woman in Russia, even prior to the revolution, enjoyed a position of freedom equal to that of any other country in the world. She was frequently found as owner and manager of large factories and estates; she got her degrees at the universities along with men; she was given posts as teachers of all kinds, including professorships at men's universities, and she practiced medicine and dentistry. There was a marked tendency to encourage her entering the legal profession, and the constitutional democrats in the duma wanted to admit her to the duties of jury service. When women teachers and professors had served twenty years they were entitled to retire on a government pension, and if they died and were survived by husbands, the pensions continued during their husbands' lives.
